TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

LUDHIANA, JULY 19
'Kande', a play to depict ill-effects of drug addiction on families, was presented at Guru Nanak Dev Bhawan on Saturday. Ravinder Arora, president, Samvedna Trust, said it was the story of a woman whose dreams were shattered when her son became a drug addict. In the climax, she killed her own son, he said.

The play also depicted the aspect of inequality and injustice to women. The play was organised by Samvedna Trust in collaboration with Joshi Foundation and presented by Wave Artist Group. Sukhpal Singh, writer of the play, played lead role with his wife Sumanjit Kaur, said Arora. The play was organised to commemorate the sixth anniversary of Samvedna Trust.
